

Activate 2020 through Dance!!!

Parents in Partnership invites you and your family to join professional dancer MerSadies McCoy, exploring unity, accountability, authenticity, advocacy, culture, and community.

MerSadies McCoy began to pursue Dance as a passion at the age of 12. In high school she trained intensively at Saint Paul Conservatory for Performing Artists during the day and as a scholarship student with TU Dance Center at night.

She graduated May 2017 with her Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from SUNY Purchase College in New York, where she was a Dance scholarship recipient, campus leader and peer advocate for students of Color.

Since graduation MerSadies dedicated two seasons as an Apprentice and is now in her first Touring Season with TU Dance Company.

A highlight this year is MerSadies recently td in Brooklyn, New York with Indie Folk band BON IVER as part of the Come Through Tour.

Passionate towards Outreach, MerSadies loves working with youth. She teaches locally in the Twin Cities at TU Dance Center, The Cowles Center and Urban Dance Productions.

The last two years MerSadies has had the pleasure of teaching for leading organizations such as Big Brother Big Sister, Free Arts, YWCA of St. Paul, The Jeremiah Program, and Cornerstone Twin Cities.
